

ATD 30th Annual Charity Golf Classic Raises $250,000 for Gary Sinise Foundation

Community

HUNTERSVILLE, N.C.

American Tire Distributors (ATD), one of the largest independent suppliers of tires to the replacement tire market, joined its vendor partners in friendly competition to support the company's long-standing commitment to supporting "Everyday Heroes," or those who drive and arrive first to the scene of a crisis or natural disasters in communities across the globe.

The 30th Annual Charity Golf Classic, hosted on October 7 at The Peninsula Club in Cornelius, N.C., included 80 players on 20 different teams to raise more than $250,000 for the Gary Sinise Foundation, a nonprofit organization that serves our nation by honoring America's defenders, veterans, first responders, their families and those in need.

"At ATD, our community is important to us and we are so proud to celebrate and recognize the 'Everyday Heroes' that serve in our communities and beyond," said Stuart Schuette, CEO, ATD. "'Everyday Heroes,' are an integral part of our company and unites us, across all U.S. locations, around a cause that has touched so many of us in our own lives and we look forward to continuing the tradition for years to come."

"We were beyond thrilled to partner with ATD to support our nation's defenders and their loved ones," said Elizabeth Fields, COO, Gary Sinise Foundation. "Thanks to ATD's support, the Gary Sinise Foundation will be able to continue addressing the needs of the men and women who defend our communities and our country, and improve the lives of America's heroes and their families.”
